In the noteworthy section, you will find coverage of the teacher research symposium where students develop, and present their own research projects, an article on graduation events where we celebrated student accomplishments, a feature on the College’s recent Sid Richardson Foundation Grant to provide funding for innovative and transformative efforts, and an article about Dean McPherson being named one of the most influential deans of education.

In the faculty focus section, you will find information about Dr. Kristi Santi’s recent publication as part of a literacy series by Springer, and AAHB’s honoring of Dr. Nathan Smith for his participation as a mentor for the AAHB Research Scholars Mentoring Program.

In the student spotlight section, you will find a feature on the COE students that have been selected to be a part of Senior 27, a new honor society for the best and brightest graduates from UH, and a look into doctoral candidate Chestin Auzenne-Curl’s work as a member of the first CUII Ph.D. cohort.

In the alumni profile section, you will find recognition of College of Education alumni Tracy Ginsburg and Jo-Ann Phan.

In the Upcoming Events section, you will find:

- Teacher Research Symposium
- Graduation and Reception
- Sid Richardson Foundation Grant
- Dean One of the Most Influential

MARCH OF DIMES

Thanks to the COE for your generous contributions!