John Gaa at the KIVA in Farish Hall during a faculty meeting.
Phyllis Gingiss
TDH Research on the road.
Did You Know?

Ronald Frankiewicz performed in a rock band while making his way through graduate school at Kent State University.
W. Robert Houston

Then

Now
Did You Know?
Farish Hall once housed a large central staircase that crossed all four floors.
Foundations of Education Department Faculty in the 1970s

Included are John Gaa, David (Dov) Liberman, Ronald Frankiewicz, Robert Williams, Al Miller and Joe Caponari, Eliabeth Ghatala, John Bell, and Barbara Foorman.
John Gaa & David (Dov) Liberman
Team teaching an Educational Psychology course.
Doris Prater
With Laveria Hutchison at College of Education Graduation in 2008.
John Gaa
With students in the 1980s.
Mary Armsworth

Who’s behind that Mask?
At a Department of Educational Psychology Halloween Party in the 1980s.
Health and Physical Education
Banner
W. Robert Houston
With Mrs. Elizabeth Houston
Mary Armsworth
During a 1990’s Department of Educational Psychology party.
W. Robert Houston
With Mrs. Elizabeth Houston, Robert Wimpelberg, Robert Williams, and friends.
Joel Bloom
With Mrs. Risa Bloom at a College of Education celebration in 2007.
Farish Hall
W. Robert Houston

With Mrs. Elizabeth Houston and Allen Warner at the Star Awards Dinner in 1999.
W. Robert Houston
Then

Now

John Gaa
W. Robert Houston was surprised when he showed up for his first public school position as a wood shop teacher, and they told him he would be coaching elementary school football team... Then he led them to multiple citywide victories!
Mary Armsworth
With a student at a Department of Educational Psychology Holiday Party.
Doris Prater
At 2007 graduation with faculty.
W. Robert Houston
Working in his office in Farish Hall.
David (Dov) Liberman & John Gaa
With Paul Swank and colleagues at the Department of Educational Psychology Halloween party.
David (Dov) Liberman
Performing at a Department of Educational Psychology party with colleagues, including as Mary Armsworth.
Did You Know?

During a flood at the UH campus, Joel Bloom went into the military science offices in Garrison Hall, found and inflated life rafts, and then rowed faculty to safety.
Guess Who?

Junior faculty transporting materials around Farish Hall for a meeting.
Joel Bloom
Leading a spinning class for young BOUNCE participants in 2006.
Phyllis Gingiss
Celebrating her advancement to Full Professor with Judy Walker Felix.
Did You Know?

In addition to playing baseball and lacrosse in college, John Gaa worked in the boiler room of a power plant.
Phyllis Gingiss & Dennis Smith
Pose with Jenny Yi and other Health faculty.
Dennis Smith
Phyllis Gingiss & Dennis Smith

With their Post-Doctoral Research Group.
Dennis Smith & Joel Bloom
Posing with a friend.
Phyllis Gingiss

With colleagues, Richard Hamilton and Hersh Waxman.
Did You Know?

David (Dov) Liberman once farmed bananas.
Mary Armsworth
Speaking before the US Congress on the topics of aging and trauma in 2004.
Phyllis Gingiss

With the Health Network of Evaluation and Training Systems (HNETS) Family.
Mary Armsworth

with her son and daughter at the UH Teaching Excellence Awards dinner where she was honored.
Meeting with President Renu Khator, Laveria Hutchison, Jerome Freiberg, and Sara McNeil in Farish Hall.
Joel Bloom
Honored as one of the UH faculty, student, staff and alumni “celebrities” to be featured as a trading cards.
John Gaa

With Robert Wimpelberg and at the College of Education Hall of Honor in Farish Hall.
Mary Armsworth
With students at the 2011 visit of APA President Melba Vasquez.
Did You Know?

Dennis Smith plays banjo in the Irish Brigade, a band he has performed with for 32 years.
Mary Armsworth
With graduating students, including Genevieve Stevens, in 1994.
W. Robert Houston
Meeting with President Renu Khator and College of Education Faculty in the KIVA of Farish Hall.
Ronald Frankiewicz
John Gaa

With Weihua Fan at her baby shower.
Did you Know?

UH held a Spring Fling tube race in the Cullen Family Plaza Fountain just outside Farish Hall in 1985.